STOP TWO: Monterey Bay Aquarium- Be at the Group Entrance by 10:50 a.m.

Visit the tribute to the canneries and to Edward (Doc) Ricketts on the ground floor of the aquarium. The exhibit is on the ground floor just past the large gift shop and information booth on the left. Each person should write down one thing learned about Ricketts, Steinbeck, the canneries, immigrants, industrialization... or anything else you find of interest about this area. Don't tarry! The octopus are close!

STOP THREE: The Great Tide Pool - This spot on Ocean View Boulevard isn't marked, but you'll know you're there when you pass Asilomar Blvd. and a golf course on your left and just a bit later you see signs signaling "Tour Bus Parking" on your right. Please refer to the Pacific Grove Map as well. While there, students will try to identify some of the marine life on their handout. No swimming or wading allowed! Plan to leave by 330 to make it back to SLVMS by 430.
